NOBLE C. HOOD
Clerk, U.S. District Court

ORDER

The motion of Clarence Joseph Dugal filed of record in this case on June 2, 1958, being a motion to vacate sentence pursuant to Title 28, U.S.C., Section 2255, having been considered this date, and the court being advised in the premises and having examined the court file, finds that the motion should be denied for the reason that the defendant was not illegally detained before being arraigned on the charge in this case, as he was lawfully held on two other charges at the same time, and further, that he waived his statutory right to a preliminary hearing by his plea of guilty to the information, and even had he not waived his right by the plea, a preliminary examination is not a condition precedent to a prosecution by information. The facts alleged in defendant's motion being admitted, for the above reasons the defendant was not denied due process of law.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the motion to vacate sentence filed June 2, 1958, be and the same is hereby denied.
